

Academic World Insights

from American Universities
2010 Osaka University D-Learning Series

Now in its second semester, Osaka University's successful D-Learning series broadcast from the San Francisco Center continues to expand its curriculum. The Fall 2010 series will be held entirely in English with corresponding essay assignments to expose Japanese students to academic level English and the American university environment. The speakers will discuss their work in advanced areas such as Microbiology, as well as Legal Studies & Sociology, Dentistry.

Date: Wednesday 10:30-12:00 in Osaka (Tuesday 18:30-20:00 after Nov 7th, 17:30-19:00 in San Francisco).

Dr. Michio Tsutsui
Live video conference lecture to Osaka
University students

Dr. Kelly Holt

Academy of Art University : Critical Thinking / Academic Writing

Ms. Dana Lewis

Japan Society of Northern California : Journalism

Dr. Michael Sadowsky

University of Minnesota : Microbiology

Dr. Michio Tsutsui

University of Washington : Technical Communication

Dr. Ryoichi Kuboi

Osaka University San Francisco Center : Bio Engineering

Ms. Akie Matsuyama

Osaka University San Francisco Center : Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

Dr. Akiko Iida-Klein

Columbia University (Alumni) / Art Student : Medical Science

Dr. Hiroshi Fukurai

UC Santa Cruz : Legal Studies & Sociology

Dr. John Ino

UC San Francisco : Athletic Bioethics

Dr. Grant Tsuji

UC San Francisco : Dentistry

Dr. Hiroshi Fukurai
Live video conference lecture to Osaka
University students